VANTAGE WEST WINS SAFETY AND HEALTH ACHIEVEMENT RECOGNITION

TUCSON, AZ (October 10, 2019) – Vantage West Credit Union received the Safety and Health Achievement Recognition (SHARP), awarded by the Arizona Division of Occupational Safety & Health (ADOSH).

Upon completing the audit at 2480 N. Arcadia Avenue in Tucson, Arizona, ADOSH concluded that Vantage West and its Associates strive to be the very best in what they do, up to and including their safety and health programs. ADOSH noted Vantage West continues to find new and innovative ways to improve existing programs – and it shows.

The SHARP award is presented to one financial institution per state and remains in effect for three years. ADOSH commends Vantage West for a job well done. It is a partnership between all Associates, spearheaded by Security & Fraud, Facilities, and Associate Affairs, that makes this level of excellence possible.

ADOSH representatives including Steve Morgan, ADOSH Assistant Director, Francisco Mendoza, ADOSH CET Supervisor, and Alberto Moreno, ADOSH Safety Consultant, presented the award to Frank Trembulak, Vantage West CEO, Dan Townsend, Vantage West Chief Associate Affairs Officer, Brian Hillegonds, Vantage West Security & Fraud Investigation Manager, Steve Sickelbower, Edward Buster, and Michael Stevenson, Vantage West Security and Fraud Analysts.

The success of Vantage West's safety and health programs is a result of the teamwork between Security & Fraud, Facilities, Associate Affairs, and every Associate doing their part.
